Opening day at
Prince Edward Academy

PRESENTING THE CHALLENGE....

Our school has made history and we are proud to be a part of it. Something indefinable places it among those at the top . . . instills in the student body a desire to excel . . . encourages each student to develop his talent and to profit from this opportunity of education.

This year has brought new ideas, new experiences, and new goals. These have influenced the molding of each student into a complete individual . . . a representative of the overwhelming challenge of Prince Edward Academy.

Within these pages the Challenge...

CHEERLEADERS

Twelve girls, from the tenth through the twelfth grades, compose the cheerleading squad of Prince Edward Academy. This twelve-fold force is responsible for igniting flames of spirit and pep where grandstand participation is essential. At many football and basketball games they carry out the true "Wolverine Spirit" and through their efforts, let the boys on the team know they are being supported.

Cheering at games, however, is only one of the many services they contributed to the Academy. Since many clubs have not been active this year, the cheerleaders carried on many of the activities which included keeping the student body informed of coming athletic events, selling season tickets to the football games, and sponsoring social functions - all of which were planned outside of school.

CAVALIER

June comes! and with it the day when the annuals are placed in the hands of eager students. The business staff has worked hard getting ads to support our CAVALIER, and the layout and copy staffs were kept busy trying to meet dead-lines. Due to our school situation this year, the CAVALIER staff has had to do all its work outside of school hours. This meant many hours of hard work on their own time. Amidst the confusion of distributing annuals, staff members pause to reflect on their accomplishments. Their challenge has been met, and they will carry with them forever the benefits of a truly rewarding experience.

Photographer Eddie Noel snaps picture as Mrs. Coleman checks sales list of business manager Rockye Bruce.

The Focus is the Upper School newspaper written and mimeographed by students of Prince Edward Academy with the help of faculty advisors. Selling at five cents a copy, the Focus carries no advertisements. It contains a full news coverage of events concerning the students and faculty with editorials written for the benefit of the students. Student reporters are headed by a staff of more experienced students, appointed by a student-faculty committee. The Focus offers a chance for experience to those who are interested in journalism.

Our Student Cooperative Association is an organization composed of all the students who attend Prince Edward Academy. Although it has been unable to function in its fullest capacity this year, its main objective is to improve student-teacher relations and to promote better scholarship. This year, 1960, Prince Edward Academy was host school for the State S.C.A. Convention. This is an honor; but it was also a responsibility, for we secured overnight accommodations for over three hundred boys who were here as delegates. In previous years our S.C.A. has been well known state wide for its accomplishments.

F.H.A. is a national organization of pupils who have studied Home Economics. F.H.A. was continued this year because it was considered an integral part of the Homemaking program. In order to function as a club, monthly meetings were held at night to which parents were invited. The programs were presented by club members and usually a social followed. Some of our program topics were home beautification, improved lighting, family devotions, and a fashion show held at Singer Company. Our most important project for the year was decorating the Homemaking Department.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The first annual football banquet of Prince Edward Academy was held on the evening of December 15, 1959. Coach Marvin Bass, assistant football coach at the University of South Carolina, was the guest speaker. Trophies were received by seniors Dickie Cralle, most valuable player; Charles Hundley, for best sportsmanship; and Sammy Martin for having the highest scholastic average. Tri-captains for the 1960 season were announced to be Bobby Schmidt, Donnie Cook, and Baxter Carter. Following the presentation of awards, gifts were exchanged between the cheerleaders and head cheerleaders; and a gift was given to Mrs. Coleman, their sponsor. The program was then turned over to the football players who gave gifts to Coach Gilmer: assistant coach, Henry Birdsong; and sports announcer, Al Smith. Charles Hundley and Bobby Jones made the presentation of a high fidelity record player to Coach Gilmer from the "Wolves".

Dickie Cralle, who was chosen as the Wolverine's most valuable player for 1959, is congratulated by Coach Gilmer.

ALMA MATER

Our school was not the first one
To be built of hopes and dreams,
With walls of high convictions
And with faith for her beams.

First to leave the old ways,
The first to dare to try;
Fought for with such assurance,
How could they think she'd die?

Prince Edward stepped a new way,
Made history at her start;
She's first in strength and courage,
And the first in our hearts.
